

Dr. Gretchen Conrad , PhD, C.Psych.

Dr. Gretchen Conrad is a Clinical and Health Psychologist at The Ottawa Hospital and a Clinical Professor with the School Psychology at the University of Ottawa. She has been employed at the Ottawa Hospital since 1993, working in variety of contexts within acute mental health, including general in-patient Psychiatry, the Eating Disorders program, the Early Psychosis Intervention Program, and 2 years as the Acting Chief of Psychology. She was Co-Chair (2009-2013) of the Early Psychosis Intervention Ontario Network (EPION), a coalition of EPI programs throughout the province. Currently she is with the Outpatient Mental Health Program of the Ottawa Hospital, working in the Perinatology Program and the Urgent Care Clinic. Her responsibilities include group and individual therapy, diagnostic assessment, program design and evaluation, teaching and supervision of students and Residents, and community education and presentations.

