

Dr. Kerri Ritchie, Ph.D., C.Psych.

Dr. Kerri Ritchie obtained a Masters degree in Forensic Psychology, a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology and is registered as a Clinical and Health Psychologist with The College of Psychologists of Ontario. She is the Director of Training for the Department of Psychology at The Ottawa Hospital and on the Executive Council of the Canadian Council of Professional Psychology Programs. Nationally, she has been involved in the development of Canadian standards for the profession of psychology.

Dr. Ritchie has worked with the Maternal Fetal Medicine Clinic at The Ottawa Hospital since 2002. providing individual and couples therapy. Her research is in the area of psychotherapy outcome. She provides clinical and research supervision to students from the Department of Psychology, University of Ottawa.

